Who can attend?

In addition to ETFO members and their families, other affiliate union members, parents, community members, and all supporters of publicly funded education are encouraged to participate. ETFO members can bring family and children on the bus. Please indicate the number of family members when registering.

Will transportation be provided?

Busing is available for members and their families at no cost, space permitting. You can sign up for the bus in the closest community to where you live. Those with longer travel times will be provided coach buses.

Is there a registration cutoff?

We ask members to register by October 12 to help plan and prepare final rally logistics. If you miss the registration deadline, you can still attend, but we cannot guarantee transportation will be available.

Will there be parking at the bus pick-ups?

Yes, bus pick-up locations will be where parking is available and free. Pick-up locations for each bus route will be shared closer to October 24.

Do I have to take the bus?

No, you can arrange your own transportation. Personal travel to the rally and parking expenses will not be reimbursed.

Can I go to any rally or is there a designated one for ETFO?

You may attend the rally of your choice. Wherever you are, be sure to wear your ETFO swag and bring a banner to represent our union proudly.

If I have mobility/accessibility needs, who do I contact?

Please indicate your mobility/accessibility needs when you register so that accommodations can be made.
